

Common Reporting Framework

As of April 20, 2020

Introduction

To streamline reporting activities and deliverables for organizations in the area of college and career access, persistence and success, several foundations and nonprofits came together in the spring of 2017 to envision and develop a common reporting framework. After many discussions, the group recommended a balance of semi-annual reports and quarterly checklist updates, which are detailed in the following two pages. These initiating foundations and nonprofits are excited about the benefits that this common framework can offer organizations and support its adoption more broadly across other foundations and nonprofits.

Participating foundations and nonprofits include:

Full Common Report

Introduction: The foundations agree to accept two full reports each year. Reports will be submitted on the following dates:

- Report 1: February 15
- Report 2: August 15

The general outline of each report is provided below. While approximate word counts are identified, there are no minimums nor strict word limits. Organizations are strongly encouraged to provide only the information that needs to be conveyed, as informative, but concise, summaries are preferred over exhaustive analyses. If more context is required, please submit supplemental information in an appendix that is referenced in the question.

Overview:

1. Organization Name
2. Primary Contact Information (including name, phone, email)
3. Reporting Timeframe – i.e., dates for which the report reflects

Operations:

1. Provide current financial information:
 - a. Annual organizational budget with revenue and expenditures (Report 1: Year-to-December 31; Report 2: Year-to-June 30)
 - b. Audited financial statement (as available, if fiscal year end occurred within 60 days of reporting period date, provide unaudited year-end statement)
 - c. Also provide a narrative description of any significant changes ($\pm 10\%$) in your budget since the last report. (approximate word count 500)
2. Provide a description about any significant changes related to governance, management, operations, fundraising or overall organizational health.

Programming:

1. Attach metrics and outcome data as requested by each foundation. Submission preferences listed in the submission guidelines chart.
2. Describe the progress accomplished since the previous report against programmatic goals. (approximate word count 500)
3. If progress was not what was anticipated, please share additional context and explanation. (approximate word count 500)
4. Provide 2-5 highlights from the past reporting period. Share individual stories, successes, and/or other accomplishments that may or may not be directly tied to established goals. (approximate word count 500)
5. Describe any significant changes to the program or workplan. If there are no significant changes, please write, "No changes" (approximate word count 500)

Key Learnings:

1. Describe key learnings or new insights that may have been garnered during the reporting period. Please include any new practices or processes that you think should be shared with other non-profits in the area of college and career access, persistence and success. If these learnings have any long-term implications for your program, please elaborate. (approximate word count 500)
2. Describe any unexpected challenges or obstacles you faced, and what you will do differently as a result. (approximate word count 500)
3. Is there anything else that you would like to share? Feel free to include any additional explanations or comments to help us better understand your data. (approximate word count 500)

Common Checklist

Introduction: The foundations agree to accept quarterly checklists (no longer than three pages) to identify any significant changes that have occurred during the reporting period. Checklists will be submitted on the following dates:

- Checklist Update 1: May 15
- Checklist Update 2: November 15

Note: For the quarters in which full reports are submitted, the quarterly checklist will be included as an attachment. When completing the checklists during these quarters, organizations may write, "See report" for any boxes where report narrative may provide an adequate explanation.
